

SUCCESS STORIES OF STUDENTS,
DEPARTMENT OF LINGUISTICS AND TRIBAL LANGUAGES

Solomon Debbarma

Class of 2018 Batch (M.A. 1st Batch)

Department of Linguistics and Tribal Languages

Current Status: Assistant Teacher

Institution: Subrai Vidya Mandir, Tripura

In Service: For last 3 Years.

'Looking for Higher Education is General Aspiration to Interested Students.' Department of Linguistics and Tribal Languages, TU had helped me lots acquiring enough aspirations towards success. My two years Concise Experience in the Department guided me built my teaching career with better accent, grammatical order and certain entities. M.A in Linguistics and Tribal Languages, TU facilitates better education with qualified Faculties. I distinctly encourage my fellow friends to Discover and Explore the Department of Linguistics and Tribal Languages.

Rasna Jamatia

Class of 2018 Batch (M.A. in Linguistics and Tribal Languages) TU

Current status: Government employee.

Nature of Job: Mahila Police Volunteers (MPVs) under Gomati District, Tripura

In service: For last 2 years.

Department of Linguistics and Tribal Languages, TU was a great a place to learn many things. I was ushered with excellent academic and personal guidance from a very subline class of professors. Being a student of Linguistics and Tribal Languages, TU, I feel proud and honored.

Class of 2020 Batch (Linguistics and Tribal Languages)

Current Status: Employee at Department of Post, Govt. of India

Place: Thelakung, Udaipur, Tripura

In service: For last 1 year

Lawrence Molsom

I am very thankful to have an opportunity to pen down my success story. Though I have a long way ahead to achieving my dream, I am very pleased working as Gram Dak Sevak. Serving the people have been my all-time desire. As a student of Tripura University, I was guided with excellent professors, always motivating us and reminding us to do better in life, and could not have asked more for a better learning experience.

Always work hard and strive for excellence.

Thank you all for your prayers and best wishes.

Class of 2020 Batch (Linguistics and Tribal Languages)

Current Status: Teacher

Nature of Post: Assistant Teacher

Place: Sadhiram, Tripura

In Teaching: For last 1 year

Jasua Debbarma

It was a great opportunity of my life to studied in the Department of Linguistics and Tribal languages. I am truly blessed to have our professors as our Teacher, Mentor and Guide. I will always be thankful to them for what I am today. The friendly behavior of our professors and their teaching methodology have inspired me to follow this profession. And I believe choosing linguistics was my best decision and I am proud of it.